Filing Agent

Is this report being filed by an agent on behalf of a manufacturer or service provider? No

Product Labeling

Do all hearing aid-compatible handsets include labeling? Yes

Explain:

Do all hearing aid-compatible handsets with the Wi-Fi air interface have clear and effective disclosure that the handset has not been tested for hearing aid compatibility with respect to its Wi-Fi voice operation? Yes Explain:

Public Website

Does your company maintain a public website describing all hearing aid-compatible models, the ratings of those models, and an explanation of the rating system? Yes

Website address: http://www.longlines.com/wireless/hacphones.php

Explain:

Consumer Outreach

Describe consumer outreach efforts in the past 12 months: Long Lines Wireless maintains a public website displaying its full selection of handsets, including those that are HAC-compliant. Existing or prosepective customers can determine whether a handset is HAC-compliant by consulting with sales personnel, reviewing the packaging and/or literature for the handset, or reviewing th company's website.

Methodology for Functionality Levels

Historically, Long Lines Wireless has defined functionality according to price to the consumer, as more expensive handsets generally have more features and capabilities (e.g., high data speeds), with "C"-level handsets priced under $100 (with 2-year plan), "B"-level handsets priced from $100-$250 (with 2-year plan), and "A"-level handsets priced above $250 (with 2-year plan). During 2009, for competitive reasons, Long Lines Wireless reduced all handset prices (with 2-year plans) below $250, so even HAC-compatible handsets with state-of-the-art features and functionality are all designated to consumers as "B" or "C" level handsets.
